

Jacob's Testimonial for Black Thai Cattery
Cain and Hunter ("Jack" and "John")
The Tom Cruise Litter

Our two male Siamese cats have been nothing but amazing. Since the moment we got them, they have been nothing but sweet, kind, and hilarious. I am so impressed at how confident and courageous they are. They are not afraid of us and they let pick them up whenever we want. Every day they play fight and it is hilarious. Both of them run up and down the hallway multiple times a day. I am so happy how wonderful they are. Tom and the girls have done a spectacular job at raising these kittens and I could not ask for anything else.
