

Aaron's Testimonial for Black Thai Cattery

Cain and Hunter ("Jack" and "John")

The Tom Cruise Litter

Born 3/20/2018

Well I have to say it was a tall order as these kittens had some pretty big shoes to fill. You see, we lost our Harley on New Year's Eve and were DEVASTATED. Harley was a 16 year old flame-point Siamese and the most AMAZING family member and cat-dog we had ever loved or known of.

In mourning, we yearned for the many things that made Harley so wonderful: his talkative/vocal nature; his playfulness (chasing his tail up until his last days), his always wanting to be with us, sleeping with us, coming to us when we called him...I could go on for days. These qualities that seemed to be so unique are actually part of the fact that he was Siamese. Out of respect to him we thought we should wait to get another kitten, but in truth it was because he was so wonderful that we longed to help fill the massive void that was created by his passing. I am so glad we did not wait.

After extensive research in regards to personality types and breeds and even much more extensive research on Siamese breeders across the country by my wife Amy, we came to Black Thai Cattery.

They truly raise their kittens to be confident, loving and playful family members. We were enamored by the amount of work and attention to detail that Tom and his girls put into every litter. We were also pleasantly surprised at how open they were to having us visit their home to see the current litters in progress so we could make the decision to take home some kittens. As some of you may not know this is not common. We have had breeders tell us they do not take visitors prior to purchase.

With that said we chose to adopt two boys; litter mates. We named them Cain and Hunter (Pence, not Strickland) as we are huge SF Giants fans. They have exceeded our expectations in every way. They are confident, affectionate, silly and adventurous. They have become friends with our Dutch bunny and will rub up against our two dogs without fear. Oh I did not mention how handsome they are...my goodness they are some of the most attractive cats we have ever seen. This too is a testament to the work that Tom has put into his craft. We will be adding more of his kittens to our family in the future for sure.

We can't thank Tom and his daughters enough for including us in their family by sharing their wonderful kittens with us.
